

A world of habits and customs (03.09. – 24.09.2011)

In the province of Salzburg tradition is spelled with a capital 'T'. Immerse yourself into the regions' habits and customs: With the 'Farmer's Autumn Festival' package deal you will get a firsthand experience of Pinzgau from a folksy point of view. There is far more to it than observing the farmers as they bake their bread and make cheese - only by tasting everything can you form your opinion.

The festival starts on 3th September. Then, traditional costumes and cultural customs shape the townscape until the end of the month. Regardless which festival you would like to attend: you can take part in all of them with this flat rate!

Our offer:

- Seven nights´accommodation with or without board, subject to price.
- Admission to the heritage museums in Zell am See and Kaprun.
- Visit to a farm in Zell am See, watch the bread baking and cheese making and sample farm products on the premises
- Participation in a traditional local harvest festival event
- Every Monday: guided tour of the town