

Plunging into the deep from the peak (14.5. – 16.10.2011)

Dipping and enjoying the view: with the 'Mountain and Swimming Ticket', you can combine taking a dip on a hot summer day with the unique view of the picturesque region around Zell am See and Kaprun. This way, you can really savour the hot season during your summer holidays to the full - and save some cash as well.

This special offer is valid for six consecutive days. Mountain lovers and bathing beauties can go swimming, take the cable cars, and use the post buses to their hearts' content - and all that without any additional costs. With the 'Mountain and Swimming Ticket' you may take all the cable cars on Kitzsteinhorn, Maiskogel, and Schmittenhöhe. Parents can even take their young ones up to the peak for free.

If you prefer taking a dip instead of ascending to the top, you will get your money's worth at the indoor swimming pools and lidos in the region. You will not have to pay anything extra to get into the Optimum Kaprun or the leisure centre of Zell am See. Mind you, that's not all, yet. You can also benefit from great discounts on a panorama sightseeing tour on Lake Zell and a visit to the Kaprun Alpine reservoir.

Special offers:

- Use of all the lift and cable car facilities which are in operation
- Admission to the lidos as well as the indoor swimming pool "Hallenbad" of Zell am See and Kaprun
- Free ticket for the Post bus of the region
- Guided walking tours on Schmittenhöhe and Kitzsteinhorn
- 50% discount on day tickets for the glacier skiing try-out day on Kitzsteinhorn
- Parents and one child pay standard price, siblings under the age of 15 are free
